

International Non-Binary People's Day

The RAF Gender Network invites you to join us for a lunch and learn session . The aims of the session is to create a safe space to discuss the gender spectrum and where non-binary people fit within it. The session will be lead by the Chair of the Network, Gp Capt Claire O'Grady and will feature the following speakers.

- Welcome from the RAF's Gender Advocate
- Academic perspective on the gender spectrum
- Non binary Lived experience perspective
- Perspective of a parent
- Gender policy update
- Update on pronoun guidance
- Panel discussion

Date: 14 Jul 22

Time: 1200

Yellow represents people whose gender does not conform to the binary structure or do not refer to it

White represents people who identify with multiple genders, such as bigender or genderfluid identities.

Purple represents people who identify their gender as in-between the binary or a mix of both.

Black represents people who do not identify as having a gender.

The symbolism of the non-binary flag